

South GeorgiaLEADS
RELEASE OF LIABILITY

The undersigned applicant (“Applicant”) hereby acknowledges that participation in the South GeorgiaLEADS program (“LEADS”) may include activities such as classroom work, travel, dinners, receptions, industry tours, and other field activities. Applicant further acknowledges that such activities will necessarily be conducted in the presence of instructors, fellow classmates, hosts, LEADS officials, and other individuals. Finally, Applicant acknowledges the recent pandemic of Corona Virus (also known as COVID-19) and its associated illnesses which have spread across Georgia and the entire United States.

Applicant recognizes that because of the nature of the above activities and interactions with other individuals, certain risks may arise during the LEADS program. Such risks include, but are not limited to, personal injury, property damage, contraction of illness or disease, and death.

Despite knowledge of the above risks, Applicant elects to accept such risks and release the LEADS organization, its sponsors, members, and directors, as well as the Locate South Georgia Foundation organization, from any and all liability for injury or damage as outlined above. Applicant also provides this release on behalf of Applicant’s heirs, family, relatives, beneficiaries, and assigns. Further, Applicant agrees to take all reasonable precautions to prevent harming other participants or individuals in the course of LEADS activities from the above risks.
